

What Does Criminal Justice Reform Mean to Texas Cities?

The TMCEC General Counsel, Ryan Kellus Turner, will be speaking on Friday, October 6th from 9:00 to 10:15 am at this TML Conference, Room 361 A-F, Level 3. We welcome mayors, council members, city managers, city secretaries, judges, prosecutors, and court support staff! The topic is "The Effects of Ferguson and the Future of Fines and Court Costs in Texas." The session is offered by the TML affiliate, the Texas Court Clerks Association. Judge Turner is an outstanding, dynamic speaker. He's written extensively on the topic and addressed audiences nationally and throughout the Lone Star State.

Attendees will be entered into a drawing for the Municipal Judges Book.

The Texas Municipal Courts Education Center (TMCEC) is funded by the Texas
