● BEFORE THE TRIAL

For courts that conduct jury trials infrequently, it is recommended that a pretrial hearing be conducted to ensure that the parties are in agreement on all possible issues and that the risk for procedural surprises during the trial is minimized. This is especially true for jury trials involving pro se defendants who may not understand trial processes.

Step 1: Case is set for trial

Things to Do

- Prepare complaint
 - Send copy to defendant/attorney
 - Send copy of file to prosecutor
- Send trial setting form to defendant/attorney (see Jury Trial Setting form)
- Post docket online or in a designated public place in the courthouse as soon as notified of the setting (Art. 17.085, CCP)

Step 2: Summons the jury

Things to Do

- Issue writ of venire (Art. 45.027, CCP) (see Order to Summon Venire form)
- Summons prospective jurors – 30 to 40 for a misdemeanor trial, depending on how many trials are set for that docket
 - Print juror summons (see Jury Service Cover Letter, Juror Information Sheet, and/or Official Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire forms)
 - Mail regular mail at least 3-4 weeks prior to trial setting
 - Possible sources for potential jurors:
 - Voter registration records
 - Property tax listings
 - Driver license records
 - Utility billing accounts
 - Remember: to be eligible to serve on a municipal court jury, a person must be a resident of the municipality (Sec. 62.501, Gov't Code)
 - Print and keep a list of the potential jurors

- Take and keep track of potential jurors requesting postponement, exemption, or giving excuses
 - Requesting postponement (Sec. 62.0143, GC)
 - Requesting exemption (Secs. 62.106 – 62.109, GC)
 - Providing excuses (Secs. 62.110 and 62.112, GC)
- Mark out the names of the jurors requesting postponement, exemptions, or excuses
- If claiming exemption based on lack of residence in the county or lack of citizenship, must notify the county voter registrar (SOS & DA) on a monthly basis (Secs. 62.113 and 62.114, GC)
- Make note of returns on bad addresses or other returns
- Notify the judge to appoint an interpreter for prospective jurors who notify the court that he/she is hearing-impaired and wants to serve on the jury (Sec. 57.001(4), GC)
- Prepare excuse letters and/or certificates of appreciation to be handed out after jury service for jurors to take back to work (see Juror/Witness/Defendant excuse letter and Certificate forms)
- Copy the returned juror information sheets for the prosecution, defendant, and judge
- Prepare a list of jury panel for prosecution, defense, judge, and clerk
- Prepare a verdict form (see Verdict: Election for Jury Punishment form)
- Prepare form for defendant to elect jury punishment (Art. 37.07, CCP) and send to defendant to return (see Election for Jury to Assess Punishment form)

● TRIAL DAY

GREETINGS:

According to Court records, you have entered a plea of not guilty and have requested a trial by jury in the above entitled and numbered cause.

While the Texas Constitution ensures you the right to a trial by jury, you do not have a constitutional right to jury sentencing. Rather, the right to jury sentencing is purely statutory in origin. To invoke this statutory right, you must make a timely election of jury sentencing.

For your election to be timely, you are hereby ordered by the Court to make your election in writing:

- At a pre-trial hearing (if one is ordered by the Court); or
- Prior to beginning the voir dire examination of the jury panel.

You may make your election by providing the Court with a copy of the attached motion.

To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

Now comes the Defendant, in the above entitled and numbered cause, and in accordance with Article 37.07, Code of Criminal Procedure, and before the commencement of the voir dire examination of the jury panel, elects in writing that the punishment, if any, in this cause be assessed by the jury.

FROM: Texas Municipal Courts Education Center
RE: Instructions for using the Official Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire
DATE: August 2011

In September 2000, the Office of Court Administration (OCA) completed its work on the Official Uniform Model Jury Summons & Questionnaire mandated by Chapter 62 of the Government Code. All counties were required to conform their written jury summons and questionnaires to the Official Uniform Model Jury Summons & Questionnaire no later than January 1, 2001.

In May 2001, the Texas Municipal Courts Education Center adapted the Official Uniform Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire for use in municipal courts. There were three Official Municipal Court Jury Summons & Juror Questionnaires. The models differed only in respect to the population bracket exemptions:

- Applicable to cities with a county population of under 200,000 residents.
- Applicable to cities with a county population of at least 200,000 but fewer than 250,000 residents.
- Applicable to cities with a county population of at least 250,000 residents.

In August 2009, OCA revised the Official Uniform Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire to create one model that can be used by all counties, regardless of population. This form was again revised in 2011 to incorporate changes in exemptions and disqualifications enacted by the 82nd Legislature.

Pursuant to Sections 62.0131 and 62.0132, Government Code, each model includes: 1) a mandatory jury questionnaire that solicits basic demographic information about the juror; 2) notice regarding the juror's right to reemployment; 3) notice concerning the consequences to the juror for failure to obey the summons; 4) notice to the juror concerning appropriate dress in the courtroom; 5) notice to the juror concerning the statutory qualifications for jury service; and 6) notice to jurors concerning statutory exemptions from jury service, including active duty military deployment.

In adapting the Official Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire for municipal court use, the following modifications were made: 1) In addition to providing notice regarding a juror's right to reemployment, criminal penalties for employers are defined; 2) The consequences to the juror for failure to obey the summons refer to the specific provisions of Chapter 45 of the Code of Criminal Procedure; 3) The general qualifications for jury service are supplemented by the specific requirement that the juror be a resident of the municipality for which the Court is established.

Information contained in the completed juror questionnaire is confidential and not subject to the public information provisions contained in Chapter 552 of the Government Code. The information contained in the completed juror questionnaire may only be disclosed to: 1) a judge assigned to hear a cause of action in which the respondent to the questionnaire is a potential juror; 2) court personnel; and 3) a litigant and a litigant's attorney in a cause of action in which the respondent to the questionnaire is a potential juror.

While the model forms provided contain statutorily mandated language, each model may be supplemented to meet the needs of your court (e.g., maps, parking information, internet access, etc.). Additional questions may be added to the juror questionnaire as deemed relevant by the trial judge. However, neither the OCA nor TMCEC is empowered to determine the efficacy of any supplemental information added to the summons or questionnaire.

OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

TO: Texas Court Clerks, Court Administrators, Court Coordinators, Justices of the Peace, and Voter Registrars
FROM: Office of Court Administration
RE: Instructions Concerning the Official Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire
DATE: August 1, 2011

The Office of Court Administration (OCA) is required by Sections 62.0131 and 62.0132 of the Government Code to develop and maintain a model for a uniform written jury summons and questionnaire. In response to suggestions from clerks, judges and attorneys, OCA has revised the model jury summons and questionnaire. Your county is required to use a written jury summons and questionnaire that conforms with the OCA model. The model can be used by all counties regardless of their population.

The model is designed to be printed on an 8 ½" by 11" card with a fold in the middle to result in an 8 ½" by 5 ½" mail piece. Page one of the model is designed to be on the front of the card while page 2 is designed to be on the back.

Please note the following instructions to ensure that you modify the model in an appropriate manner for your county:

- (1) The four blanks in the sentences on the top of page 2 should be filled in with the title of the appropriate clerk (e.g., district clerk);
- (2) Exemptions 8 and 9 should not be listed in counties with populations of less than 200,000;
- (3) Exemption 9 should not be listed in counties with populations of less than 250,000;
- (4) Exemption 8 should not be listed in any county in which the county uses a jury plan under Government Code, Section 62.011 and the period authorized under Section 62.011(b) exceeds two years;
- (5) Exemption 9 should not be listed in any county in which the county's jury wheel has been reconstituted prior to the time that a person who has previously served as a petit juror in the county has again been summoned for jury service; and
- (6) Complete the contact information in the area designated as "Clerk Contact Information" on the top of page two.

Understanding that each Texas county is different, OCA believes counties may format the text of the model to meet their particular needs. Maps, parking information, internet access information, and other similar information may be added to the model. The top portion of page one is especially flexible. Please feel free to adjust this portion of the form to your county's particular needs.

If you have any questions or suggestions concerning the Official Model Jury Summons and Questionnaire, please contact Ted Wood, Assistant General Counsel for OCA.
