Editor's Note: Since 2017, municipal courts of record and justice courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts to expunge fine-only offenses. A person who is eligible for an expunction under the process described in Article 55.02 may file in a municipal court of record or justice court in the county where either the petitioner was arrested or the offense was alleged to have occurred. Article 102.006, C.C.P., authorizes a $100 fee for filing a petition for expunction. Any returned receipts received by the clerk shall be maintained in the file on the proceedings under Chapter 55.

At the request of the defendant, the court shall enter an order of expunction (if entitled to expunction under Article 55.01(a)(1)(A)), not later than the 30th day after the date of the acquittal. For a person entitled to an expunction under Article 55.01(a)(1)(B)(ii), the court shall enter an order of expunction not later than the 30th day after the date the court receives notice of the pardon or other grant of relief. If a petition for expunction is filed under Article 55.01(a)(1)(B)(i), 55.01(a)(2), or 55.01(b), the court shall set a hearing on the matter no sooner than 30 days from the filing and send notice to all entities listed in the petition.

See Chapter 55.02, Section 5, C.C.P., for detailed procedures on destruction by the clerk of files and records subject to expunction.

Non-record municipal courts have no authority to expunge under Chapter 55 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
